is back this July! This much loved community event is now the highlight of the summer events calendar and attracts thousands of people from across the South of England. This year there will be TWO stages. One will be on the recreation ground and the other on the market place precinct. Both will feature a constant programme of live music and dance by both local and national performers. Headlining is Sazia Judge with her mix of bhangra, pop and funk. There will be a health zone, food - as usual the aroma of mouth-watering food from across the world will welcome everyone and an information zone. Families can be certain to find something that their children will enjoy. For the older ones a climbing wall, while creative youngsters will enjoy glue and glitter to decorate their own hand-made kite, paper craft and pottery. Everyone will be spellbound by the beautiful display of Falcons. There will also be face painting, Taekwondo, Indian martial arts, Chinese Lion dancers and much more.

Congratulations to The Sorting Office for their 2018 Summer Open Studios. They welcomed over 900 people through their doors on the weekend of 23rd-24th June. Teaming up with Southampton Etsy was the perfect addition to promote Eastleigh's hidden gem.
